

River of Tell

© 2010 Arlen Trent Rundvall

When you turned away
I lost my vision to dream
Close my eyes wish you to stay
I see you still the day

Dancin in the sand
Draggin trails of tears
The ocean waves my soul to shore
The ocean waves my soul to shore
Your love still flows through
Your love still flows through

Hard to see you in the mirror
Your bare shoulder etched that scene
Though the colours bleed pale
Wonder will they ever remain

The sun shines though I do not see
Pieces of us crumble to dust
Floated split settled and stained
Mixed with this river of tell

When you turned away
I lost my vision to dream
