

See Me Rise

©2012 Arlen Trent Rundvall

You might see me struggle
You might see me hide
You might see me crumble
You might see me cry

But (Yet) (And) you'll see me rise
You'll see me rise
See me rise again shakin off this shame
See me rise look you (me-last one) straight in the eyes

You might see me down
You might see me frown
You might think I'm weird
You might need me cured

You could hold my hand
You could help me stand
You could be with me
You could help me see
